Familimy – the family tree suite for WordPress & Elementor

Change log

Familimy – Condolence Widget

1.1.2 – New: the memorial pop-up shows how many days are left until each remembrance day.

1.1.1 – New candle icon in the Elementor panel.

1.1.0 – New: the "Show" section accepts several members and can add all deceased members of chosen generations; the shortcode accepts `member="1,2"` and `generation="2,3"`. Widgets saved with a single member keep working.

1.0.0 – First release: memorial cards, message wall, who-can-post setting, order options, memorial pop-up, auto-updates.

Familimy – Birthday Celebration Widget

1.0.3 – New: every person in the birthday pop-up shows how many days are left ("Today", "Tomorrow", "In 12 days").

1.0.2 – Refined cake icon in the Elementor panel (matches the new icon set).

1.0.1 – Fix: the widget now has its own icon in the Elementor panel.

1.0.0 – First release: birthdays widget, e-mail reminders and greetings with customisable HTML templates, birthday pop-up, auto-updates.

Familimy – Marriage Anniversary Widget

1.0.2 – New: every couple in the anniversary pop-up shows how many days are left.

1.0.1 – New wedding-rings icon in the Elementor panel.

1.0.0 – First release: anniversaries widget, pop-up, milestone names, auto-updates.

Familimy theme

1.0.1 – New: Search results option (Appearance → Customize → Familimy Options) to show 10, 25 or 50 results per page; the default is 25 (it was 10). Family members now appear first in the search results.

1.0.0 – First release.

Familimy Core

1.0.2 – New: the pop-up engine can show a "days left" badge next to each person (used by the birthday, anniversary and memorial pop-ups). "Don't show again" is not reset by the changing counter.

1.0.1 – New: Cache settings (Family Members → Settings). Familimy asks the site cache to clear itself when members change and once a day; includes a "Clear the cache now" button and a list of recent clears.

1.0.0 – First release.

Familimy – Family Tree Widget, Family Member Card Widget and child theme

1.0.0 – First release (all features listed above), including automatic updates.
